Buon Ricordo

New from the Australian owned natural makeup brand is a fabulous solution to evening out your skin tone and covering any flaws naturally. Natural Calendula Tinted Face Dust is a lovely organic foundation which is not only good for your skin but stays fresh all day long. It is light, chemical free, and contains ingredients including silica, kaolin, and calendula. It also comes in a neat white round container, which is easy to slip into a bag or small purse.

Face Dust comes in three colours, light, medium and dark, which can be used on their own or blended to create the perfect shade. For the best application, use with one of Ere Perez's specially made powder brushes. All you need to do with the finely milled powder is dip the brush into it, tap off the excess, and dust on your skin.

FAST FACTS

Face Dust costs rrp AU$39. The compact Natural Face Blender Brush is rrp AU$34.90, and the long handled Natural Power Brush is rrp AU$32.95. Available from selected retailers, or online at www.ereperez.com.
